

“THE SALAM WAY” BEHAVIOR/PERFORMANCE CONTRACT

Bathrooms

I agree to:

- keep the bathrooms clean
- not write on or damage the bathroom walls or stalls
- not put things in toilets or sinks that do not belong
- not throw wet toilet paper wads onto the ceiling or walls
- not splash water all over
- not waste paper towels (only 2 sheets to dry hands/ face)
- throw paper towels in the garbage cans

Daily Grooming

As part of my focus on Islamic requirements and excellent health, I agree to:

- shower daily or at least wash my face thoroughly to look presentable
- wear deodorant every day
- brush my teeth every morning
- wash my hands often to prevent spread of germs (particularly during winter)
- keep my hair and fingernails clean and trimmed; No nail polish (girls)

Dress Code

I agree to:

- wear the required uniform every day
- keep my uniform washed, clean, and presentable
- keep my shoes clean and presentable
- wear clean socks
- keep my clothing Islamically loose and modest on “Out of Uniform Days”
- avoid apparel that advertises or depicts alcohol, drugs, nudity, tobacco products, satanic pictures, gang symbols, obscene language, obscene graphics, and /or phrases that are offensive to Islam.

Field Trips

While in public settings I agree to:

- respect the bus driver, remain seated at all times, and speak quietly
- keep the bus clean (NO trash left behind; place in garbage can or bag)
- listen and obey teachers and chaperones
- uphold Salam Core Values
- be respectful of other people and public property
- display polite manners (“please,” “thank you,” “excuse me”)
- remember that I am representing Islam, Salam School, and my family at ALL times

Hallway Behavior

I agree to:

- WALK safely on the right side (hallways and stairways)
- not push or shove
- not block the hallway when socializing quietly (keep to the side)
- keep my belongings in my locker and not leave anything in the hallway
- NOT vandalize or tear down any artwork or items hung up in the hallways
- greet people that pass by, especially visitors to our Islamic school
- hold the door open for the person behind me

Littering

I agree to keep my Islamic school clean by not littering in the:

- hallways
- bathrooms
- classrooms
- lunch room
- gymnasium
- school grounds
- school building functions

I agree that if I make a mess, I will clean up after myself.

Lunchroom Etiquette

To show good manners, I agree to:

- walk to the serving line (no pushing or shoving)
- act with good manners; SPEAK QUIETLY
- say “Please” and “Thank You” to the food servers/custodians
- remain seated at the table throughout the year
- recite the Dua’a before eating (Allahumma....)
- clean up my own area completely before leaving
- walk to the garbage can and return to my seat
- place my chair under the table when I leave
- line up immediately when asked
- leave the lunchroom when allowed

*Masjid and Prayer Etiquette

As a sincere, devoted Muslim I agree to:

- wash for prayer correctly in order to make my prayer acceptable to Allah (S)
- leave my shoes only on the shelf to open the way for other Muslims to do so
- enter the masjid silently, walking to the line for prayer
- sit silently reciting Quran, supplications, or dhkir without disturbing others
- stand for prayer silently when the Iqamah is announced
- make my intentions to perform the prayer CONCENTRATING ONLY on pleasing and hoping for Allah’s acceptance
- walk silently out of the masjid when dismissed by the teacher
- quickly put on my shoes and walk to class

Morning Assemblies, General Assemblies, & Dismissal Etiquette

I agree to:

- be on time every day before the morning address begins
- line up in my class’s designated area
- listen to the speakers
- behave politely
- contribute to a quiet atmosphere
- discourage other’s from being impolite

MAY ALLAH REWARD YOUR RESPONSIBLE ACTIONS

AMEEN

Profanity

As a sincere, devoted Muslim I agree to:

- NEVER use vulgar words or swear words
- NEVER use insulting words (race, age, gender, social status)
- NEVER use profane gestures or gang signs

Recess Behavior

I agree to:

- go outside for recess when asked to.
- exit the building for recess only out the gym doors or designated doors
- NOT bring any food or drink outside
- stay away from the metal garbage containers, sheds, fence, and cars
- play only in the designated areas
- report to recess supervisor when a ball goes over the fence
- not leave the school grounds at anytime
- not throw snowballs, ice, or woodchips
- treat school property with respect
- line up immediately when the whistle is blown; no pushing or shoving
- cooperate fairly with other students (fighting is strictly not allowed)

Textbooks

I agree to be responsible for:

- taking care of my textbooks and keeping them clean (from food, drink, and being placed on the ground)
- keeping my textbooks in my possession at all times
- not leaving them in the hallways
- protecting all my textbooks with book covers during the entire school year

“The Salam Way”
Student Signature _____

Date _____

